Prior to 1929 the subordinate Gazetted Staff of the General and Revenue Secretariat consisted of 9 officers, including 7 Under and Assistant Secretaries, a Registrar, and a Chief Reporter (2 Asst Secys). In January 1929, a new appointment was sanctioned for looking after Publicity work as well as the duties of Assistant Secretary, Economic Conference (Mr T.L. Kantam)

In April 1929, one post of Assistant Secretary (rendered vacant by the transfer of Mr. Mahomed Ismail Sheriff) was left unfilled, and later on the posts of Under Secretary, Finance, Chief Reporter and the Assistant Secretary Economic Conference were abolished. One of these posts (Assistant Secretary, Finance) was, however, revived in April 1933. Experience has shown that the number of officers is still too short to admit of efficient arrangements being made for prompt despatch of work and the difficulty is felt all the greater when any of the Under and Assistant Secretaries goes on leave or is absent from station even for short periods. It is therefore very necessary that the number of Assistant Secretaries should be increased by one at least. When the matter was Submitted to the Dewan, he was pleased to say that the post may be revived.

A draft Government Order is put up accordingly for ~~consideration~~ approval.

N.B. The post of Asst. File No. of 193 . | General and Revenue Secretariat

The proposal is to revive the post of an Assistant Secretary abolished in the year 1929 as a measure of economy and involves a recurring expenditure of about Rs 4,400 per annum. There is no provision for the purpose in the current year's budget and in the present financial condition, proposals for incurring new items of expenditure or for going back on retrenchment measures sanctioned for economising expenditure should not be sanctioned. (Vide G.O. No. Fl. 26-32/G.F.136-34-1 dated 29th September 1934.) In March 1933, the position was reviewed and an additional Assistant Secretary posted to the Secretariat. I do not think that the work has increased since then to such an extent as to require another additional Assistant Secretary especially when on account of financial stringency, the activities of the various Government departments have been curtailed to a great extent. The present proposal cannot therefore be regarded as urgent and not avoidable and can very well lie over till the finances improve.

The sanctioned strength of the Civil Service Officers includes 12 Reservists, and even if an additional Civil Service Officer is considered necessary for the Secretariat, it should be possible to provide for this, without increasing the total sanctioned strength of the Civil Service Cadre by making one of the Reservist officers work in the Secretariat as a temporary measure without increasing the number of the cadre.

Refce: Last para of the Fin. Secretary's minute dated 20.11.34.

The reserve of 12 officers in the Civil Service cadre is fully used up by vacancies in the cadre — due to officers acting in higher posts, being on other duty elsewhere, etc. So there is no spare officer out of the reserve who is not occupying a regular charge and who is available for being posted to the Secretariat as a temporary measure as suggested by the Fin. Secy. In fact, the reserve in the C.S. cadre has always been inadequate to meet all the demands and acting appointments of Asst. Comrs are being ~~~~ made to meet the extra requirements.

The present proposal to have an extra Asst Secretary for the G.R.S. ~~~~, if sanctioned, have the effect of increasing the C.S. cadre temporarily by one.

I have tried my best to agree accept the views of the Financial Secretary but I regret I have been unable to do so. Since 1929, the following appointments have been abolished:—

1. Secy, Law Dept. (1931)
2. Asst. Sy (1929)
3. Asst. Sy (1931)
4. Asst Sy (also Chief Reporter) 1933.
5. Asst Publicity Officer 1933

Of these the post of Asst Sy (Finance) does away with 1931 has been revived. The present proposal is to revive the post of Asst Sy abolished in 1929.

We have been able to get on by tackling important items of work to officers who have their hands full with the normal duties of their appointment & I am afraid this has often proved unsatisfactory. For instance the important work relating to I.C. Dept & to the Publicity Office has been entrusted to the Secy, S.P.C. But we are aware that this arrangement has not worked well & in view of the fact that both these items of work are increasing in importance & volume, it seems to me necessary that satisfactory answer should be sent forthwith. Hence the case of an Asst Sy is pressed.

Submitted to His Highness.

The accompanying papers relate to the question of reviving the post of Assistant Secretary to Government in the General and Revenue Secretariat, which was abolished some time ago as a measure of economy.

The strength of the Gazetted Staff of the General and Revenue Secretariat has in recent years been progressively reduced in connection with measures of retrenchments adopted from time to time, as indicated below:-

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| 1. | One Secretary to Government (Law Department) | in 1931 |
| 2. | One Assistant Secretary | in 1929 |
| 3. | One Assistant Secretary (Finance) | in 1931* |
| 4. | One Assistant Secretary and Chief Reporter | in 1933 |
| 5. | One Assistant Publicity Officer | in 1933 |

(* Of these one Assistant Secretary's post abolished in 1931 was revived in 1933.)

Every endeavour has been made for getting through the work done by these officers by distributing it among the others, and by tacking on a portion of Secretariat work to the Secretary, Stores Purchase Committee, in addition to his normal duties.

These arrangements have, however, been found unsatisfactory, especially as work relating to some Departments (e.g., Industries, Publicity) has been increasing in importance and volume. In the interests of prompt and efficient despatch of work, it has become quite necessary to revive the post of an Assistant Secretary.

Flag G

The Financial Secretary is not in favour of the incurring of additional expenditure in the present financial position, and suggests that the appointment of an extra officer

officer be avoided by giving some more work to Mr. V. Ganesa Iyer, Executive Engineer, doing duty as Under Secretary, Railway Department. It would be a most unsatisfactory arrangement to entrust the work of the Civil Secretariats to an officer of a Technical Department. Besides, the question of fully utilising the services of Mr. Ganesa Iyer is separately under consideration.

In the foregoing circumstances, I beg to recommend that the proposal to have one more Assistant Secretary for the General and Revenue Secretariat, which has been agreed to by the Members of Council, may be graciously approved Dated, Bangalore the 19th ~~November~~ December 1934.

Prior to 1929 the subordinate Gazetted Staff of the General and Revenue Secretariat consisted of 9 officers including 7 Under and Assistant Secretaries, One Registrar, and one Chief Reporter who was also attending to a portion of Secretariat work. An extra officer was ~~also~~ sanctioned in 1929 with the designation of Assistant Secretary, Economic Conference, who was also in charge of the Publicity Office.

In connection with retrenchments effected from time to time, the posts of Chief Reporter and Assistant Secretary, Economic Conference, were abolished and their work was of these distributed among the remaining officers. Further, the number of Under and Assistant Secretaries was also reduced so that it now stands at 6, (not taking into account the post of Assistant Secretary, Law Section which was a special appointment sanctioned in connection with the abolition of the post of Legal Remembrancer and Secretary to Govt., Law Department).
